Learn what it takes to create and produce an original musical in ArtWorks, a teen leadership program for students 12–17. The Summer Intensive 2009 session begins Monday, August 3rd. Through this innovative program, students become involved in the artistic and business aspects of producing a show. This program is geared towards multi-talented, hard working and self-motivated students. ArtWorks students are encouraged to work with SOPAC staff at evening performances to gain real-world experience.

Students must be between the ages 12–17 and entering 8th–12th grades.

Cost: $675/$600 for returning students (Spring 2009 session only)
